

Garretson MS

February Students of the Month

Preston is a very hard working young man who consistently does well in the classroom. He works well with his peers and is very respectful of adults. He is a good role model for other middle school students.

Jaelyn brings a great attitude to class that is appreciated by all. Her positivity and hard-work ethic add greatly to class discussions and projects.

Ian brings a unique outlook and set of opinions that he is happy to share with the class. He is very positive and friendly to his peers. We love his energy and passion for learning.
