

Garretson MS

October Students of the Month

Allison has transitioned into middle school very well. She is a diligent, hard-working student who strives for excellence when doing assignments. She contributes to the classroom discussion and ask questions as needed. She respects her peers and her instructors and is a pleasant addition to the classroom.

Keara is a diligent, hard-working student who strives for excellence in her studies. She actively participates in the classroom and is respectful of her instructors and peers.

Lucas works very hard in class. He is organized, polite, and is willing to participate. Lucas is a successful student who will continue to do well.

