

Garretson MS

September Students of the Month

Evan demonstrates what it is to be a student of character who treats his peers and instructors with the utmost respect. Evan is serving a second term on the middle school student council indicating the trust he has earned from the middle school student body. Bly is prepared for class and is an active participant on a daily basis.

Chloe is one of the hardest working students in Middle School. Her polite demeanor and attentiveness in class is appreciated and makes her a good role model for her peers.

Clay is a hard working young man with lots of potential. He is determined to do well both inside and outside of the classroom. Clay is very helpful to his fellow classmates and helps them out when he can. Clay helps to brighten up the room with his humor and brings a smile to everyone's face. His personality and determination is the reason he stands out to be picked for the student of the month.

